

Last updated February 14, 2024

CEDP Privacy Policy:

CEDP is deeply committed to protecting the privacy of our clients and the confidentiality of information that you provide CEDP. We are providing this notice to explain our data and information practices. In short, CEDP does not share or sell personal information for marketing purposes.

Your privacy is extremely important to the Community Economic Defense Project.

- CEDP does not ask you for personal information unless needed to provide services, register for volunteering, or accepting donations.
- CEDP does not share your personal information with anyone, except to comply with the law, offer social services when you grant us permission to do so, report to our grantors (in anonymized summarized ways) or protect CEDP rights.
- CEDP does not store personal information unless required for the operation of services or by a public agency. Many of our service contracts require the storage of confidential information for 5+ years.

CEDP respects the privacy of visitors to its web site. CEDP believes that visitors should be assured that information provided online is used responsibly and appropriately. To protect online privacy, CEDP has implemented the following policy. It is CEDP's policy to collect and store only personal information that website visitors knowingly provide.

Privacy in General:

This privacy notice for The Community Firm (doing business as CEDP, Community Economic Defense Project) ("we," "us," or "our"), describes how and why we might collect, store, use, and/or share ("process") your information when you use our services ("Services"), such as when you visit our website at <http://www.cedproject.org>, carecenter.us, or any website of ours that links to this privacy notice. This privacy notice also applies to data collected for the purposes of providing social services.

CEDP's website collects information about each visitor to the site in these ways:

- Through your IP address;
- Through project intake and interest forms and other online interest forms;
- And through any correspondence you send to CEDP via mail to the mailing address, listed emails, phone calls, text messages, chats, and through other forms not associated with the database posted on this website.

What we do with the information we gather:

We require the information to understand your needs and provide you with better service, and for the following reasons:

1. Internal record keeping.
2. We may use the information to improve our social services
3. Report to our grantors and public partners in anonymized way

Controlling your personal information:

We will not sell, distribute, or lease your personal information to third parties.

Security:

We are committed to ensuring that your information is secure. To prevent unauthorized access or disclosure, we have put in place suitable physical, electronic, and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we may collect from our website.

Casual Website Visitors and General Users:

CEDP does not collect any personal information from users browsing its web site. When you use the public areas of this site, you are doing so anonymously. CEDP collects aggregate use information, such as the number of hits (visits) per page. Aggregate data is used for internal and outreach purposes. CEDP does not collect any personally identifying information.

Links to Other Websites:

Our website may contain links to other websites of interest. Once you have used these links to leave our site, you should note that we do not have any control over the other website. Therefore, we cannot be responsible for the protection and privacy of any information which you provide while visiting other sites and those sites are not governed by this privacy statement. The inclusion of any links does not necessarily imply a recommendation or endorse the views expressed within them.

Website Disclaimer:

The information contained in this website is for general information purposes only. While we attempt to keep the information up to date and correct, we make no representations about the completeness or accuracy with respect to the website or the information, products, and services on the website.

Your Responsibility:

If you become aware of a breach in CEDP's Privacy and Security policies, or suspect that CEDP has handled your personal information in a manner that doesn't comply with this privacy statement, please contact us by e-mailing an explanation to privacy@cedproject.org. Any suspected attempt to breach these policies and procedures, or to engage in any type of unauthorized action involving this website, will be regarded as potentially criminal activity, and may be reported to the appropriate authorities.

Problems or Complaints:

If you have a complaint with CEDP's compliance with this privacy policy, you may contact us at privacy@cedproject.org, Community Economic Defense Project may change this policy from time to time by updating this page.

Concerns:

If you do not agree with our policies and practices, please do not use our Services. If you still have any questions or concerns, please contact us at privacy@cedproject.org.

Our Commitment to Children's Privacy

We never collect or maintain information from children that are under 13.